

Special Thanks UNION
STATE
BANK for Supporting
Newspapers in Education!

Special thanks to Union State Bank for supporting Newspapers in Education at the diamond-level for the 2007-2008 school year. As an NIE sponsor, Union State Bank promotes literacy by providing local teachers with classroom newspapers. Newspapers make learning more interesting for students by providing real-world information about the subjects they are studying. NIE sponsors help today's youth develop a lifetime habit of staying informed about the world around them.
